Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program

A program sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by IREX

ONLINE APPLICATION GUIDE FOR U.S. EMBASSIES AND FULBRIGHT COMMISSIONS

1. How can the application be shared?

IREX created an online application that is available via the hyperlink that was shared with the U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions. This makes the application distribution easy and fast. The application can be shared via email, posted on Facebook, printed on handouts/flyers, and posted to the U.S. Embassy or Fulbright Commission internet website.

2. Is using the online application required?

IREX offers flexible recruitment options for the countries and territories participating in the Fulbright TEA Program. U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions may choose whether to use only the online application, only the paper application, or both the online and paper applications. This flexibility enables recruitment to occur in a manner that best accommodates the recruitment strategies of each participating country or territory. However, an online application is strongly encouraged. Please let IREX know whether you intend to use the online application, paper applications, or both. If you are only using paper applications, we will work with the system administrators to remove candidates from your country/territory from submitting an online application.

3. A potential applicant has contacted us regarding a technical error in the online application. Who can we contact to help resolve the problem? Is there something we can do without contacting IREX?

IREX provided U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions with an Online Application Guide for Applicants to share with Fulbright TEA applicants. Referencing this guide may resolve the issue. If not, please advise applicants with difficulties to send a message to FulbrightTeach@irex.org to receive guidance from IREX.

4. What is the deadline for applicants to submit their online application?

The deadline for Fulbright TEA applicants to submit online applications will correspond to country specific internally set application deadlines. Please note applicants will have access to the application until 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time on closing day. For example, if you have set your deadline for February 14, 2024, applicants will have access to the application on February 14 until 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time. Please let IREX know your deadline so that we can set the cutoff in the application system.

5. Will staff members or officers at U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions have an opportunity to review the submitted applications?

Yes! ECA and IREX value your partnership and your knowledge of the education system and educators in your country. With the interview and nomination materials IREX will distribute to U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions in January 2024, IREX will include a step-by-step guide for how to access applications in the system. U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions identify the semi-finalist nominees from the submitted online and paper applications. These applicants are eligible to participate in an interview. Applicants are also required to take the TOEFL exam to determine English language skills. All U.S. Embassies and Fulbright Commissions are asked to submit a ranked list of nominees and their applications to IREX by the May 17, 2024, deadline indicated in the cable.

6. Who do I contact with general questions regarding the Online Application System (OAS)?

Please contact IREX at FulbrightTEA@irex.org with any questions regarding the Online Application System.
